3rd Day | Can Tho – Vinh Long – Sa Dec - Cao Lanh.

There are two most interesting sites that we must see because one has fun and other is related to French Indochina. The first site is busy floating market in Can Tho and we are going to go there by boat. The second site is an ancient house of Huynh Thuy Le. Who was in love with Marguerite Duras then the story became a movie. After we watched floating market of Cai Rang, a short driving taking us to Can Tho bridge to start biking. From Binh Minh to Sadec town, we bike on country back roads, through sweet potatoes, family workshop making rice powder, brick factories and pedaling along canals busy with many boats moving up and down. Our delicious lunch is served at Huynh Thuy Le Ancient house and we have a rest before we ride to Cao Lanh city. We bike through village of flower in countryside of Sadec, then we keep our afternoon' cycling through many small village through mango gardens, rivers and we have a van/bus transfer to Cao Lanh city for the night.

4th Day | Cao Lanh – Xeo Quyt base – Cai Be – Saigon.

Cao Lanh is a new town after Vietnam War. Foreigners are rarely being seen in this town because it is not really a nice place for bus tours. But bike routes are so unique. The place we start biking is about 30 minutes transfer by vehicle from Cao Lanh city. The quiet rural back road by small rivers gives you a fantastic ride with beautiful scenery along the way to Xeo Quyt, former base of Viet Cong. A local guide will lead you the way to see some shelters and a sampan rowing boat taking you into forest. If time permitted, our last ride is about 25 km on single track, through rice fields, irrigation networks, fruit orchards. We end up cycling at high road and have lunch before two hours and half returning to HCM & say goodbye with Vietnam By Bike team around 17h.
