

ITINERARY DESCRIPTION

Day 1: Saigon - My Tho - Ben Tre (L, D/Cycle 55 km/4 star resort)

No longer 1 hour and 45 minutes transfer to Tan An, where we start biking on the paved road to explore the world of fruit orchards. Dragon fruit is the most popular fruit that local farmers grow to improve their income. We bike 25km on this stage with some stops to experience the flavor of fresh fruits, villages with fun kids (you might see them on the way back home from school). Lunch at a Vietnamese restaurant.

In the afternoon, we drive about 1 hour relax in the comfortable van to My Tho's most beautiful village with very easy paths and more than 70% coconut trees in the local farms: we pedal under the shady coconuts, small & narrow lane, many stops for enjoying a fresh coconut water/ fruits, pass many family workshops making coconut chopsticks and any kind of fibers. Take a ferry to cross the Mighty Mekong River with a very short transfer to the center of Ben Tre Remote Town for overnight stay at Ben Tre Coconut homestay.

Inclusion: Comfortable support van/bus, cycling tour guide, Ben Tre Coconut homestay, lunch, dinner, Mountain bike with helmet, drinking/mineral water, fruit, snack, ferry (if any).

Day 2: Ben Tre - Tra Vinh - Can Tho (B, L/Cycle 60 km/ 4 star hotel)

We should get up early in the morning to enjoy the sunrise at 6am. On the nice weather and clear sky you will have this great moment on the Mekong Riverside. Your breakfast will start at 7:30 with simple foods as bread, jam, milk, fruit and coffee or tea. Time to relax and ready for this biggest cycling 3 day tour. Leaving the guesthouse and saying goodbye to the hostess, from there we stun a hundred orchards of this island, we ride past people's fruit yards of pomelo, guava, durian, rambutan and stop to chat with farmers. You may also visit a khmer pagoda.

We cycle further to the secrete khmer villages, learn more about their life influenced greatly by the Khmer big culture and many stops for photography in front of the art thatched houses, water coconut leaves. This is a really good experience with colorful temples and flowers along the way to Tieu Can. Then, we transfer and have lunch in Tra Met with a siesta. The afternoon ride is also a fantastic route under a thousand pomelos & 3 ferries, endless rice-fields on Luc Si Thanh & My Hoa. We drive to Can Tho for another night-stay at a 4 star hotel.

Inclusion: Comfortable support van/bus, cycling tour guide, Ninh Kieu Riverside 4 star hotel, lunch, dinner, Mountain bike with helmet, drinking/mineral water, fruit, snack, ferry (if any).

Day 3: Can Tho - Long Xuyen - Chau Doc (B, L/Cycle 55 km+/ 3 star hotel)

Anyone who has been to Can Tho and seen a busy floating market and will never forget it!

A boat ride will take you to the floating market before your biking starts. We cycle through Phong Dien' countryside, the area owns many small natural creeks across many villages. After a fruit stop at Phong Dien, we continue to pedal your bike on track by river, enjoy daily activities of local on rivers; grocery boats advertising plastic household goods, cargo boats selling sands for building, small fast boat bring pigs, ducks to local markets and many small ferries taking passengers to further side. We will stop for lunch in the town of Long Xuyen.

In the afternoon, you will cycle deeply into and bicycling on paths along man made canals as you race with local boats, and water taxi, cargo boats and sampan in the Tra Su cajuput forest. If time permits, you will enjoy the great sunset on the Sam Mountain on the western Chau Doc with some amazing pictures. Overnight in Chau Doc at 3* Hotel or Nui Sam Lodge 3 star.

Inclusion: Private motorized boat for floating market, comfortable support van/bus, cycling tour guide, 3 star hotel, lunch, dinner, mountain bike with helmet, drinking/mineral water, fruit, snack, ferry (if any), Tra Su forest ticket and boat trip.

Day 4: Chau Doc - Saigon (B, L/Cycle 45 km)

A large number of people know Mekong Delta is the biggest rice region in Vietnam, but this region is also the largest herbs and mango homelands!

Let's start early today at 7am, we take a short transfer to Binh Thuy hamlet to start cycling through the Cho Moi district which is a spirit of Hoa Hao religion and highlights of herbs, herbal medicine, incense workshops and any typical pagodas you see along the ride.

Following your lunch, you will cycle 10 km under the lush shade of the Mango (you may see and try the mango while harvesting by the local farmers) and we will finally transfer you from Cao Lanh to Saigon in the late afternoon. We'll totally ride approximately 45 km today!

Inclusion: Comfortable support vehicle, cycling guide, Mt. bike of Trek with helmet, breakfast, lunch, drinking water, snack, fruit.

Included

- Comfortable A/C Transportation: carry the bikes & transfer the riders
- Mt.bicycle with helmet, water cage, tools kit
- All entrance fees, sight-seeing tickets, local ferries and boat trips
- Meals as mentioned above: B=Breakfast, L=Lunch, D=Dinner
- Cold mineral water, energy drink, snack, fruit, wet tissue on day tours
- Shared double/twin room: 1 night at 4 star hotel & 2 nights at 3 star hotels
- Experienced English speaking cycling guide
- Pick-up & Drop-off at your hotel
- Private boat trip for the floating market

Excluded

- Flight & Visa to Vietnam.
- Personal expenses: souvenir, laundry, phone, etc..
- Travel insurance
- Tips/gratuities will be welcomed
- Personal expenses
- Single Supplement & e-Bike surcharge

VIETNAM BY BIKE

